

Langley's International Festival Society presents Float in the Christmas Parade: Come and join!

Langley's International Festival Society (LIFS) has registered a float in this year's Langley City Christmas Parade on Saturday, December 6th, 2008 starting at 5:30 pm in the heart of downtown Langley. It will be a 40 ft. float with bales of hat, cedar boughs and Christmas holly. The children, parents and grandparents from all cultures are welcome to join the parade on the float or to walk alongside. There will be sixteen international flags, Mexican sombrero's, Hawaiian and Santa hats, masks and beads for all to enjoy. There will be singing Christmas carols along with co-partner Judi Vankevich from the Manner's Club – “Hello to all the World” and “It's a Small World” and “Oh Christmas Tree” (to name a few). The parade will start at 207th Street heading West on Fraser Highway to 204th Street to Douglas Crescent – followed to Douglas Crescent East to Douglas Park Recreation Centre. There will be a treat of hot chocolate, hot apple cider, Christmas cookies and a visit from Santa. This is a 'free' community event - please come out to join the parade and support the celebration. Langley's Christmas Parade will definitely put you in the 'spirit' of Christmas!

Cheers!
